

RUNNING FOR COVER

MUSIC TRIO SERVING ABERDEENSHIRE AND BEYOND

WHAT WE DO

Running for Cover are an established covers trio based in Peterhead in the North East of Scotland, playing a wide variety of music from the sixties onwards, from the more gentle ballads to more upbeat material like Freddie Mercury's 'Living on my Own' and on to some more rock orientated songs from the likes of Fleetwood Mac, Brian Adams and others, there's something here for everyone. For a full set list, audio samples, available dates and booking please visit the website.

BAND INFO

The band use a multi-keyboard format, playing live without the use of backing tracks or music files, giving a very 'full' sound.

Keyboards are played by Steve, a veteran of some 35 years on the road in various bands and outfits touring throughout the UK.

Vocals are in the very capable hands of Davy, a singer of great talent who can sing anything from gentle ballads to raunchy rock.

The distinct guitar and harmonies of John Innes, the newest member of the band and no stranger to the stage, completes our lineup.
